WHEREAS, pursuant to Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, the chief judge of each judicial circuit is charged with the authority and the power to do everything necessary to promote the prompt and efficient administration of justice; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the chief judge's constitutional and statutory responsibility for administrative supervision of the courts within the circuit and to create and maintain an organization capable of effecting the efficient, prompt, and proper administration of justice for the citizens of this State, the chief judge is required to exercise direction, see Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.215(b)(2), (b)(3); and

WHEREAS, sections 48.25 through 48.31, Florida Statutes, the Florida Certified Process Server Act ("Process Server Act"), expressly vests in the chief judge the authority to establish an approved list of Certified Process Servers who have met the requirements for certification under the Process Server Act and the requirements set forth by the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida; and

WHEREAS, Emergency Administrative Order No. 2014-23 is temporary in nature, effective only until December 31, 2014, unless amended or superseded earlier by another administrative order, and shall not be construed as limiting or directing this Administrative Order in any manner; and

WHEREAS, section 48.27, Florida Statutes, authorizes the chief judge to establish said list of Certified Process Servers as an alternative means for the service of initial non-enforceable civil process, criminal witness subpoenas, and criminal summonses; and

2. portray a professional appearance to general public, and
3. refrain from any act, or statement that would impugn the Judiciary or Court Administration.

P. No server on the CPSL shall serve process or sub-contract with a natural person or business entity whose authority to serve process has been suspended or revoked in the Ninth Judicial Circuit, in any other county or judicial circuit in Florida, or in any other Federal, domestic or foreign jurisdiction.

The Designee can request the Chief Judge issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses.

D. If a Committee or a Panel is appointed by the Chief Judge, the Committee or Panel shall investigate and review the complaint.
